To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed is a check for $1,000 and a completed Notice of Allowance and Fees Due form.

I am completing the form because the inventor's former representative, attorney John Smith, is no longer handling this case, and the inventor – my husband – has died. I am the inventor's widow and am the legal owner of his estate.

Also attached is a copy of the form that our former attorney sent you on March 9 stating that he was withdrawing from the case and designating me as your contact for correspondence purposes. I am now completing the process needed to obtain the patent for my late husband's invention.

If you have any questions, please call me at 954-575-1827 or my daughter, Angela Bradbery, at 202-588-7741 (she lives in Washington, D.C., and has been helping me navigate the patent system).

Sincerely,

Pamela Bradbery
